AMER. NUMISM. & ARCHAE L. SO
FROM BENJAMIN BETTS

CIRCULAR TO PURCHASERS.

PHILADELPHIA, July 1, 1873.

Having lately purchased several fine collections of coins, I am enabled to offer to my customers a series of fine and rare coins as well as having the regular series continually in stock. I am negotiating for the purchase of other collections, and shall endeavor to supply the wants of purchasers at market prices, and when I purchase a collection that I think is fine enough, as a whole, to offer at public auction, I will do so, without selecting from it. Of course, at times, there may not be on hand many of the pieces contained in the following catalogue, but I will make a continual effort to fill all orders as soon as possible after receiving them. Coins will be sent on approval to collectors personally known to me. Others who may desire coins sent on approval must send the amount to bid for the coins they wish, which will be held until the package is returned, when the balance of the money will be returned to them, I paying the expressage on the return package of coins only.

I will attend all auction sales of coins, curiosities, autographs, paper money, etc., and will be pleased to receive bids using careful judgment in purchasing. My commission for the same is ten per cent. on the purchase.

In purchasing coins, at auction sales, for my friends, I will be thankful if they will promptly remit in the same a reasonable time for examination.

I have a large number of coins on hand other than those mentioned in this catalogue, and would be pleased to have those when in this city, call and examine my stock. My endeavor will be to satisfy my customers, and for any coin which they are not pleased, if returned immediately, the money will be refunded. Priced catalogues of sales will be forwarded on reasonable prices.

All remittances of money must be sent by negotiable draft or post office money order; otherwise at the sender's risk.

All orders for coins that are to be sent by mail must be accompanied with sufficient postage to defray the same, in addition to the price of the coins; also, fifteen cents if they are to be sent in registered letter; otherwise they will be sent by express. For a coin the size and weight of a half dollar the postage is about three cents

Coins sent on approval must be promptly returned after a reasonable time for inspection.

Very respectfully,

JOHN W. HASELTINE,

No. 1343 CHESTNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.
